

If I am travelling in west Texas and I am informed by XM on weather information that a major storm is in the area, this would be a great service. Besides, XM is offering a great service to the consumer. I have three (3) XM subscriptions. Why should someone else dictate what I should hear.

Stop the bullshit. Is the National association of Broadcasters headed by Saddam? If you guys want to do business this way go to the middle east, you can fit in there!
